2ND INTERNATIONALES CHORFEST MAGDEBURG

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

GREETING

Dear friends of INTERKULTUR,

Welcome to a festival of choral music and international understanding - the Internationales Chorfest Magdeburg!

We are pleased to announce that in late summer 2024, for the second time, we will be able to complement the Chorfest Magdeburg, which has been successfully organized by the Saxony-Anhalt Choral Association for years, with an international INTERKULTUR choir competition.

In addition to the competitions in various categories, the Friendship Concerts are the main focus of this event: at joint concerts with local choirs, you will get to know the tradition-rich city in the most beautiful way and experience its extensive cultural offerings up close.

Be there and look forward to new friendships and unique, intercultural encounters. Magdeburg is worth the trip!

OUTSTANDING VENUES

During the festival choirs from all over the world are invited to present the variety of choral music at some of the city's most beautiful venues:

The Johanniskirche, Germany's oldest merchant church, not only graces the cityscape with its majestic presence but also serves as a modern concert hall and exhibition space, which offers choirs optimal conditions for captivating musical experiences.

The Gesellschaftshaus, a central venue for many cultural events located in the heart of the city, provides the ideal setting for concerts and events with large audiences. A FESTIVAL OF ENCOUNTER

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE

The Internationales Chorfest Magdeburg is all about meaningful encounters: choirs from the region warmly invite participating choirs to their homes for Friendship Concerts, creating a unique opportunity to connect, exchange ideas, and learn from one another. This tangible fellowship and exchange of musical traditions foster a special atmosphere of harmony and cultural understanding. Here, participants experience international friendship firsthand!

This is made possible primarily through the collaboration with the Choir Association of Saxony-Anhalt, whose member choirs wholeheartedly contribute to the success of the Chorfest Magdeburg. Thus, in the end it becomes more than a musical event – it's a vibrant platform where culture, music, and meaningful encounters take center stage!

GREAT EXPERIENCES

The wider supporting program of the Chorfest Magdeburg has been enriched with innovative concert formats and interdisciplinary artistic activities for several years now. Among the anticipated highlights in 2024 is the much-awaited "Long Night of Choirs", transforming the churches and squares of Magdeburg into a magical setting resonating with international melodies. Prepare for a captivating evening of singing, immersing yourself in a unique atmosphere as you perform in concerts or revel in the performances of other choirs.

2.2 COMPETITION RULES

- GENERAL RULES
- a) All non-professional choirs are welcome to compete in this event. With the exception of the conductors, its members must all be amateurs, e.g. they are not allowed to earn their livelihood by professional singing.
 - b) In categories with age limits, a maximum of 20% of the members may exceed/fall below the age limit by 5 years. The organizers reserve the right to check the ages of the singers.
 - c) The order of performances within a category is scheduled at random.
 - d) INDIVIDUAL CONCERTS AND PERFORMANCES: During their stay the participating choirs are not allowed to give further concerts or performances without the organizer's approval in advance.

- MULTIPLE PARTICIPATION
- a) For organizational reasons, we recommend that each choir and each choir director register for a maximum of 2 competition categories.
 - b) Individual choir members may participate in smaller ensembles formed out of their primary choir. For organizational reasons, we however cannot guarantee that individual choir members will be able to sing in another primary choir.
 - c) All choirs may participate in only one of A, B, G.
 - d) In addition, mixed choirs can participate with their male or female voices in the same category (i.e. category A1+A2). Choirs may additionally choose to participate in categories S and F independent of their participation in A, B or G. Within the category all works have to be performed with the same line-up (e.g. it is not permitted to perform 2 pieces with mixed voices and 2 pieces with equal voices).
 - e) Conductors are permitted to conduct only one choir per category, however conducting in different categories is allowed. Exceptions are categories A2 and B2. A choir may also perform with several conductors.

- MUSIC
- a) The Artistic Committee decides on the admission of the program to the competition. The approval of the Artistic Committee is usually not given when it comes to opera choirs or when the character of the composition conflicts with a choral interpretation (such as "Nabucco - Prisoners' Choir" by Giuseppe Verdi edited for children's voices, "Träumerei" by Robert Schumann edited for choir). In addition, none of the programs may include topics such as war or glorification of violence and may not be against other nations and nationalities.
 - b) It is NOT permitted to sing the same pieces in different categories.
 - c) Some categories require a composition which does not originate in the COUNTRY, LANGUAGE AREA OR CULTURAL ENVIRONMENT of the participating choir. Examples of compliance:
 - Choirs from English-speaking countries should choose compositions written in a different language.
 - A choir from a Baltic Country (Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia) should not sing a composition from another Baltic country even if the two countries naturally have different cultures and languages.
 - A choir from a Slavic country should not select a work from another Slavic nation, even if the two countries naturally have different cultures and languages.
 - A choir from Latin and South America should select a piece that does not come from the same region.

2. COMPETITIVE PARTICIPATION

- d) The use of ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONS (categories A and C) means that a piece must be performed in accordance with the composer's original score. Compositions prior-to and through the Baroque era may be performed in variations of scoring that correspond with the original musical material. The arrangement of a composition is permitted if it has led to a new composition. The Artistic Committee reserves the right to reject compositions
- e) In categories A and C only ORIGINAL ACCOMPANIMENTS are permitted, which means that any reductions in orchestration or transcriptions of other instruments that were not planned by the composer and do not have an accepted performance tradition are excluded from the competition.
- f) ARRANGEMENTS: If you intend to change a song in any way and/or rearrange it for your choir, you will need permission from the song's copyright owner. Bear in mind that if you do not obtain permission you risk exposing yourself to legal action.
- g) ACCOMPANIMENT means that at least one pitched instrument is used. In categories requiring a cappella selections, a maximum of three instruments without definite pitch may be used (percussion instruments).
- h) AMPLIFICATION: Any kind of amplification of voices and instruments is not permitted. In rooms with poor acoustics, the organizer can use miking and amplification, which supports but does not dominate the performance of the choir. This, however, will not result in solo microphonation of the choir or of instruments.
- i) CHANGES OF KEY: If the choir wishes to change the key, the jury must be informed in writing if a choir wishes to change the key from what is written in the printed score prior to the competition.
- j) After APPROVAL OF PROPOSED PROGRAM by the artistic directors, it will be returned for final review and confirmation by the respective choir. The choir must respond within 14 days of delivery with any changes to the program. If there is no response within 14 days, the program will be considered final; therefore neither titles nor performance order may be changed. Changes made without informing the organizer will result in a disqualification. Choirs are responsible for possible performing rights of their program.
- k) ACTUAL SINGING TIME: Actual singing time is the duration of the performance time only. It excludes entrance, exit, and applause.

SHEET MUSIC

- a) 5 scores of every piece must be submitted with the registration forms.
- b) Scores submitted must conform to internationally recognized sheet music standards (five lines of notes).
- c) Scores that do not bear the titles, names of composers etc. printed in the Roman alphabet must bear a transcription into the Roman alphabet (clear handwritten notes suffice).
- d) One score remains with the organizer after the competition. Remaining scores may be collected from the organizer after the awards ceremony. Uncollected scores will not be sent by mail.
- e) No scores have to be submitted for gala or friendship concerts.
- f) Please note that published choral compositions may only be sung using the original scores or authorized copies. Copying sheet music either by photocopier, scanner or by hand without the permission of the copyright owner is a copyright law violation and can be fined. All scores must be sent by mail as hardcopy. Scores sent as files (PDF or similar) will not be accepted.
- g) If your scores are published as score book, please submit only one book but preferably authorized copies.
